

Captain Nancy Lambert Deitch, USN

Commanding Officer
SPAWAR Systems Center Charleston

Captain Deitch reported to the Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center, Charleston following duty at the Space and Naval Warfare Systems Command where she was assigned as Executive Assistant to the Commander, Rear Admiral John A. Gauss.

Captain Deitch graduated from the College of William and Mary in Virginia in May 1977 with a bachelor of arts degree in religion. She reported to Officers Candidate School, Newport, R.I. five days later. Upon commissioning, she was transferred to her first overseas duty station, Commander, Fleet Activities, Okinawa/Naval Air Facility Kadena, where she served as Personnel Officer from November 1977 to June 1979. Returning to Newport, Captain Deitch's next assignment was as the Assistant to the Dean of Administration, at the Naval War College where she served from June 1979 to June 1981.

In August 1981, Captain Deitch reported to the Naval Postgraduate School, graduating with a Masters of Science (with distinction) in Management of Information Systems. Her first subspecialty tour was as the Data Base Manager, Tactical Training Group, Pacific where she worked on the development of the Interim Battle Group Tactical Trainer (IBGTT) and the Enhanced Naval Warfare Gaming System (ENWGS). In 1986, Captain Deitch reported to the Organization of the Joint Chiefs of Staff (J-8) as the Project Officer, Joint Theater Level Simulation (JTLS).

Returning to the pay and personnel field, Captain Deitch was assigned to a series of leadership tours including Administrative Officer, Naval Air Station, Lemoore, from April 1989 to June 1991 and Officer in Charge, Personnel Support Activity, Detachment, Moffett Field. Following this executive officer equivalent tour, Captain Deitch reported to the Navy's Fleet Numerical and Meteorology Command as the Computer Systems Department Head, responsible for the operation and support of the Centers super computer facility.

In 1995 Captain Deitch assumed command of the Personnel Support Activity, Europe where she was responsible for directing ten subordinate detachments providing military pay, personnel and transportation support to service members, DoD civilians, contractors and their family members stationed in the European theater. In this capacity, Captain Deitch was responsible for standing up pay and personnel support in Sarajevo during the early days of Operation Joint Endeavor.

Captain Deitch wears the Defense Meritorious Service Medal, the Meritorious Service Medal with one gold star, the Navy Commendation Medal with two gold stars, the Joint Achievement Medal with one oak leaf cluster and the Navy Achievement Medal.